MISS KNIGHT LEAVES US

TOMORROW, we wish her well as she prepares to become a mum, tomorrow we will hold an assembly to help her prepare for this! Meanwhile, welcome to Miss Leonard, who has made a sterling start in Robins, and will lead the class whilst Miss Knight is on MAT leave.

SHAYLA ON THE RADIO! Shayla appeared (in voice) on FIX radio, the radio station for builders. She spoke about International Women's Day and introduced a song by Taylor Swift!

OFSTED: Our February OFSTED inspection report has now been published on the government website. We are well and truly delighted with our outcome, so do please take a look. The starting lines are below! From 'Excellent Entering' at the start of the day to 'Excellent Exiting' at the end, pupils are surrounded by smiles. Smiling is what 'S' stands for in the school's 'STEEP' approach to interacting. The other factors ensure that pupils make eye contact and say, 'Please', 'Thank you', and 'Excuse me'. Smiling is also one of the 'smart' walking rules, along with sensibly, silently and safely. Pupils move around school exactly like that. Teachers want pupils to achieve high academic standards that will set them up well for the future. Pupils behave well in lessons. They work hard for their teachers and achieve highly, particularly in reading, writing and mathematics.
