WELL DONE YEAR 6! At the time of writing, Year 6 have just one SAT test to go, but by the time of publishing, they will all be done! Year 6 have worked with determination, focus and concentration to do their very best in the national tests, and we are sure their tireless effort and work will reward them well. Well done to all staff, parents and carers for supporting the children too, here's to 'achieving our best together!'

KEEP RUNNING ASAL!

Hoorah for Asal, who took part in the Bristol Minis Run last Saturday. She completed the entire course, and won a medal!

THANK YOU so much to Raymond's family for attaching fully loaded planters to our phone box! It looks great! We really appreciate your time on this.

APPLAUSE to parents who completed our recent satisfaction survey. Results will follow soon!

ATTENDANCE: We are still just .3% below national (95.3 Vs 95.8) Keep coming to school every day!

PRAISE AND SHOWCASE: Last week's learning superstars!

YEAR SIX depart for camp this Sunday. We have 4 days of fun, adventure and experiences to look forward to at PGL, Osmington Bay, Weymouth!
